We are using Lutheranism 101 for a midweek Bible class at our church. This is a good product from CPH. Several writers contributed to this project. They each had some good discussion prompting questions in each chapter of the Course book. Lutheranism 101 is very . . . Lutheran (Missouri Synod). That's not a problem for us (Chapter 15 "What About Women " may be a problem for some). We are pleased with this course. The "Answer Book" is available for free on line. Thanks for this resource CPH!

Great book. As a lifelong confessional Lutheran, I didn't think I would get much from this book, but it was good to go back and look at Lutheranism at its basics. Grace alone through faith alone by Christ alone.

It's basically for people who don't know anything about Christianity. I was in a German United Church of Christ church and am joining a Lutheran church and wanted to know the difference. Didn't really do much for me.

I wanted to get the Lutheranism 101 book but when I clicked the Kindle tab it changed to the Lutheranism 101 "The Course". Wrong Book!! didn't notice until it was too late. Not a book issue, it was an issue. Money down the drain.

This is a great book covering the basics of confessional, orthodox Christianity expressed in Lutheran doctrine & practice.

Great for any Lutheran. It's good for a group study too.

I was hoping this would have more history of the sect and less "how to be a Lutheran" proselytizing... all in all not too bad of a read.
