Customer Reviews

This story was perfect for my class of students with special needs. It was very straight forward, with valid and legitimate- appropriate language and excellent pictures. I wish the book was a lot bigger for the students to be able to see better.

My daughter is 4 and has been interested in the way people live in other countries. She cannot read, but I just read this to her like I would any other book. The pictures and story are captivating to her - she requests this book often. It has enough text to clearly explain the lifestyle, but not so much detail that a young child gets lost or loses interest. I'm looking forward to getting more rookie read-about books!

Very good book for my special needs classroom, the pictures are great and the information perfect for these students. Loved it!

Great non-fiction reader for Kindergarten/1st grade. Good information. Real photos.great for our arctic unit.
