I have read many of Kay Arthur's books; they are wonderful and very inspirational. I purchased the children's books to read them in hopes they would learn the bible. The books are by far the best investment I have made. My kids love to do the studies; the studies make them think and best of all, her books are good for all ages. I even learn from the kids books.

We enjoy doing a piece of this Bible Study each night after dinner with my 8 & 10 year olds. I print out copies of the chapter of John that we're working on, and they like all the variety of study methods - symbols, puzzles, scripture memory, questions, etc. I think this is a great tool to introduce your kids to inductive Bible Study, and it's a great reminder for us parents too!

Of all the aspects of education a child needs, there is none more priceless, valuable and necessary than their own understanding of God's Word. Precept Ministries does an outstanding job of letting the Bible speak for itself for the child, NOT waiting til adulthood to try to find out how God speaks to them

I bought this for my son and he works on everyday. He is reading and learning about God's word! It is awesome to see how he has grown in God's word. I highly recommend. This is also a study he can do independently and it has brought up great conversations.

Looks great and very helpful! Easy to use and read and understand and guide your child to learn more about God!

This is a great series. My sons does them independently and without reservation.

The best Bible curriculum for kids out there in my opinion!

Excellent series. So helpful!
