Come Look With Me, Latin American Art

Synopsis

Color reproductions of twelve masterpieces are accompanied by questions that encourage young readers to learn through visual exploration and interaction. Works from artists such as Diego Rivera (Mexico), Fernando Botero (Columbia), and RamÃ³n FradÃ© (Puerto Rico) are included. Background information on the artist, the period, the medium, the technique, and the subject of the painting provide context for the art experience.

Customer Reviews

This entire series is wonderful. I was turned on to it by a peer and have used this to help me with my own students, kids, and grandkids. Great find!

very nice book and one of the best in this series
