Gods Of Ancient Egypt (Dover Classic Stories Coloring Book)

Synopsis

In ancient Egypt, the gods were considered supernatural forces that controlled everyday occurrences. There were hundreds of these figures — from the sun god Amun-Ra, who was worshipped in festivals throughout the land, to such lesser figures as Bastet, the goddess of sexuality and childbirth, who was represented by the image of a cat. This fact-filled coloring book describing the functions of a number of Egyptian deities will thrill young Egyptologists and colorists alike. Fourteen full-page illustrations feature images of: Atum, the creator; Osiris, the god of fertility and farming; Anubis, the jackal-headed god of funerals and mummification; Isis, the goddess of love and motherhood; Bes, the god of pleasure and protector of children; Horus, the symbol of the living pharaoh, shown as a human male with the head of a falcon; Seth, a god symbolizing darkness and evil; Hathor, the goddess of love and protector of women — and six other immortals. Fascinating captions characterizing the appearances and roles of these Egyptian gods and goddesses accompany the illustrations of facing pages.

Customer Reviews

They have gods labeled wrongly and are missing MAJOR gods. THEY LABELED KHNUM AS SETH, FOR GODS' SAKE! AS IF THAT WASN'T BAD ENOUGH, THEY LEFT OUT RE/RA!

One of several books available now to color in on ancient Egypt- got it mostly for the content- drawings some what crude because of the time period it's trying to portray; if you're interested in coloring but also Egyptian history it's work picking up. If you aren't into Egypt per se you might not like the art in this one.

Well drawn and more or less accurate images and text about the ancient Egyptian Gods and Goddesses. Dover can be hit or miss when it comes to quality of the art work sometimes, and this was a good one.

This is much sought book for reference that was looking for in which you can use and twist a wide range of Design and cloths to come with your own character Outfit , Awesome book plus it tells the reader which rank or Position that character cloths represent and what position in there sociaty they played

I loved the drawings in this book but had hoped for more of a selection of Gods and Goddesses. My students loved the drawings. They are sophisticated enough to hold a fifth graders interest. Great detail! I wanted more.

These are great excellent product: I got this for my Grand Daughter and she loved them, I you need a little skill to fill them in as there are many small details.

Great illustrations and good written descriptions of Egyptian gods. The only drawback is that not all of the gods are included.

Not just for kids. I enjoy coloring as a passtime. The ancient egyptians were so colorful I just love the coloring books.
